LOCAL.
—St. George's Day.
—Train left Red Deer on time.
—James McVay, Lacombe, is in Edmonton to-day.

—J. M. Herie, of Wetsaskiw, arrived in Edmonton last night.

—Twenty-four well dressed Gaiety arrived in Edmonton last night.

—General Baden-Powell, the hero of Mafeking, is touring Canada tomorrow.

—There were 102 entries for homecoming at the Edmonton land office last week.

—Calgary baseball team may challenge the Rymur Cup at present held by Red Deer.

—J. W. Bengough conducted a very successful entertainment in Calgary last Monday night.

—It is reported that the Hudson Bay company will survey and put 200 lots on the market in the near future.

—A cash sale of two year old heifers will take place at Ross & Perry's stable at two o'clock Friday afternoon.

—At the Edmonton land office yesterday there were 51 homestead entries made which represented 8,100 acres of land.

—William H. Hobbs, professor of mineralogy at the university of Wisconsin, thinks that the Hudson Bay district is rich in deposits of diamonds.

—A successful entertainment was given in Strathcona assisted by the Black Diamond Miners' Troop.

—It is authoritatively announced that 50,000 immigrants from North Dakota will have settled in Western Canada during the present year.

—A. B. Agar has decided to open up business in plumbing, steam fitting, and tin-smithing in Edmonton, and has gone east to purchase a full stock of goods in those lines.

—Ice on the river started to move this morning but has jammed up around the bend near Fraser's mill. Large patches of the river are perfectly clear of ice.

—At the entertainment given in Robertson hall last night by O. B. Griffith, his assistant who had laid in a hypnotic trance for the last forty-six hours was called back to sensibility. A programme similar to Monday evening's was given.

—Eight English families with their effects left recently to settle in the Edison settlement. The people of this progressive locality speak enthusiastically of their district. They are expecting a very desirable lot of settlers.

—Professor Tishburn, dancing master, is about to locate in Calgary.

—John Melan, a past master of the art of hypnotism, of Trail, B.C., is in Edmonton this week.

—A number of the Barr colony, Saskatchewan, are applying to C. W. Sutter, Dominion Immigration Agent, Edmonton, for work.

—Hugh Clark, M.P.P. for Center Bruce, and Chas. Clarke and J. Boyle of Bruce County, have purchased fine ranches out from Carleton Place.

—Mr. Murray and family late of Scotland, have taken up three homesteads in the Edison settlement. Mr. Murray will rent a farm, and put in a crop this year.

—The C.P.R. strike in Calgary which was declared off a few weeks ago, has broken out again with unusual vigor. The freight sheds are closed up, but the baggage room is still open. President Estes is at the bottom of the trouble.

—The rain fell last night and this morning, although light, has made the roads about town very muddy. A good heavy rain would do much to clear up the weather and would also take away a considerable amount of snow that is still lying on the ground.

—The Northwest Mounted Police are offering a reward of fifty dollars for the recovery of the body of J. R. Bee, who is supposed to have been murdered on or about the 24th of October last near the mouth of Haynes Creek, on the Red Deer river, Alberta.

—It may be worth while to know that a man on the prairie can always fix the points of the compass on a clear day if he has a watch. Let him point the hour hand to the sun, and half way between it and twelve o'clock will be south. This is applicable for any hour at which the sun can be seen, and is reliable.

—R. Bach, who toured the Edmonton district last year as special correspondent for the New York Statesman, and also old country German newspapers, has issued a pamphlet entitled "A Trip through Western Canada during the summer of 1902." The pamphlet speaks enthusiastically of the natural resources of Western Canada.

—Alberton—Mr. C. M. Bowman, M. P. of Southampton, who was in the city some time ago in the interest of the Red Deer Valley railway, has written the city clerk that "We expect to commence construction in the very near future and the only thing that will in any wise delay us after we get started will be want of getting delivery of building material."

—In view of the large influx of English people into this district this year, Lodge Edmonton of the Sons of England Benefit Society has appointed an immigration Aid Committee, consisting of Bro. Rev. H. A. Gray, Geo. Goodall, Chas. Griffin, and B. Crompton, for the purpose of extending a welcome to the new-comers and of assisting them with counsel and advice.

—Free Press—Judge Fitzgerald has given his decision at Fort William in the case of McNulty vs. the C. P. R. The case was one in which the plaintiff sued the defendant company for loss of a box of household goods, which was lost in transit between Edmonton and Fort William. The box had been shipped from Edmonton in the fall of 1901 by Mr. McNulty, and had not reached its destination. Judgment was given in favor of the plaintiff for the full value of the goods and costs.

—Free Press—The number of people going into the Mackenzie river country, this year promises to be large. Inspector Constantine of the Northwest Mounted Police, goes in with a detachment of nine men, and the quarters on the Hudson's Bay company steamer Wrigley will be crowded. Mrs. Mills, wife of the captain of the Wrigley, will join her husband, and a number of Hudson's Bay company employees will return to their posts, among them being Joseph Hudson and John Firth, of St. Andrews, J. S. Omsell, of Winnipeg, a retired chief factor of the Hudson's Bay company, will also verify the northland if he can secure accommodation on the steamer.

A RETURNED FARMER DELEGATE.
John Kennedy, delegate to the north of Ireland, has returned to Edmonton. He reports having a very busy time while away and was not by any means on a holiday trip as many imagine. The passage across to Ireland was as disagreeable rough as the return trip was agreeably pleasant. He spent four weeks in Ireland, arriving there on the first and leaving on the 30th of March. His particular district was Belfast and locality. Besides the continual answering of questions of intending emigrants, who flocked to see him, Mr. Kennedy addressed nineteen meetings in the districts of Belfast and distributed literature. Commissioner Preston of the Immigration department, said that the sending of this delegate of practical farmers to the Old Country had done more than anything else to induce English immigration.

Another strong argument was the American immigration. The people of Great Britain and Ireland believing strongly in the good judgment of the American farmer. When questioned concerning the dissatisfaction on account of the poor accommodation on board ship Mr. Kennedy said that there was some dissatisfaction among the steerage passengers but it was unavoidable as so many people were clamoring for passage that every available berth was taken up which, of course, caused some discomfort. But as far as hardships were concerned, the prospective settlers of today knew nothing about them when compared with the difficulties of the early settlers in the Northwest. The present immigration is expected to keep up at its present high pitch until well on in June. A large number of settlers from Antrim county, Ireland, have taken up land west of Leduc. These are a very superior class of settlers and all have more or less means. A large number of the emigrants are practical farmers. The majority of the others will hire out for a year before taking up homesteads for themselves. Mr. Kennedy says we have no idea of the immense flow of immigration that has set Canada awash.

AN OPEN LETTER

To the Builders of Edmonton District.

Gentlemen: No doubt you have heard and read in the papers recently a great deal about the so-called "LUMBER COMBINE," and the consequent advance of prices in this connection a few statements of fact from us may be in order.

The manufacturers of British Columbia advise us that the advance in prices is due to the increased cost of labor and of materials and that this justifies the advanced price to the trade. Whether this is true or not we are not in a position to judge.

But we do know that it is very difficult to get orders for B. C. lumber filled with any degree of promptness. Many of the mills are sold out of stock and cannot at present ship a car. We therefore claim that the advanced prices is due to scarcity of lumber. The price of any commodity is regulated in our day not so much by the cost of production as by the general demand for the commodity.

As to our own prices we beg to say that we are careful to see that they bear a right relation to cost. We cannot help the rise in B. C. lumber because the cost price is considerably advanced. But in the lines of our own manufacture such as Windows, Doors, Frames, etc., our prices are lower than the prices for the same articles either in British Columbia or Manitoba. This will indicate to you our position in this matter.

In view of the scarcity referred to if you are building or intend to do so, we advise you to place your order with us as soon as possible so that we may get in a position to fill it when required. We promise to do the very best for our customers that circumstances will permit.

V. V. Truly Yours, CUSHING BROS. CO. LTD. Factories and yards at Calgary and Edmonton. Branches at Strathcona and Fort Saskatchewan.

FROM OTTAWA
THE BUDGET ANNOUNCEMENTS.
Bulletin Correspondence.

TRADE.
The budget announcements for the current year were made yesterday at crowded galleries, by the Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance. The leading features were the unprecedented increase in Canadian trade and the square turn down of the absurd and insolent demands of the Manufacturers' Association for tariff changes in their special interests. Two years before, the Finance Minister had expressed the fear that Canada had then reached a height of commercial prosperity, which could not be expected to further increase. On the present occasion it was his pleasure to announce that he had been mistaken, and that the increase which had taken place since had been greater in fact and in proportion than before. The total trade for the year ending June 30th, 1902, was: Imports, 196,000,000 and exports, 202,000,000 as against 111,000,000 imports and 99,000,000 exports in 1900.

REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE.
The revenue for the current year, from July 1st, 1902, to April 10th, was $48,000,000 as compared with $43,000,000 in a similar term of last year. The total revenue for the current year was $165,000,000 an increase of $7,000,000 over last year. The expenditures from July 1st, 1902, to April 10th, 1903, were nearly $23,000,000 as compared with slightly under $22,000,000 in the previous nine months, an increased expenditure of nearly one million dollars. He estimated the expenditures for the whole of the current year at $51,650,000, as compared with $50,750,000 last year, a probable increase of the total expenditure of one million dollars. This would give a surplus of revenue over expenditures chargeable to income of $13,350,000, and after allowing ten millions for expenditure on capital account, would give a clear surplus of $5,000,000 to be applied to reduction of debt. This is the largest net surplus which Canada has ever had, and practically wipes out the 'old' increase of the past year's year.

REDUCTION OF DEBT.
During the seven years in which the present government has been in power, the total increase of debt was some seven and a half millions as against six and a half millions per year during the preceding eighteen years of Conservative rule, and now the seven and a half millions added under the Liberal rule is almost wiped out.

INTERCOLONIAL OUTLOOK.
An interesting statement of revenue and expenditures on the Intercolonial Railway was also made. In 1899 the revenue was $2,928,000 and the expenditure $4,801,000. In 1902 the revenue was $5,671,000 and the expenditure $5,574,000. The immense increase in business and substitution of a small annual surplus for a large annual deficit is an ample justification of the management of the railway and of the policy which secured its extension to Montreal under the terms of what the opposition was pleased to call at the time the "drummed County Railway scandal."

ISSUE OF CURRENCY.
Dealing with the question of finance the Minister alluded to the need of a larger amount of currency to handle the growing trade of the country. This was limited under bank charters and the law controlling the issue of government notes. To meet the requirements of the banks were applied for increased capital, which all enable them to increase their circulation correspondingly. However, the Government, in the present bank panic, has taken power to increase the issue of government bills from twenty millions to thirty millions. It was believed that the increase of bank circulation and of government bills would be sufficient to meet requirements.

FREE CANALS.
An important announcement in connection with trade and transportation was that for two years the Canadian canals would be free of tolls. It had been represented that the next expenditure which Canada had made on her canals, and more recently on their enlargement, had been rendered of little value because of the tolls; it was therefore felt to be the true economy to abolish them, at least experimentally. The amount of revenue derived was trifling in comparison with the vast expenditures involved in their construction and with the interests effected for good or ill by their securing, or failing to secure, the traffic to accommodate which they were built.

THE TARIFF.
The announcements regarding increases of trade and revenue were expected, but when the subject of tariff was reached, the realm of uncertainty was entered and the expectation to hear something more, was at a height, but the minister hastened to put an end to suspense by declaring that, with a very few exceptions, there were to be no changes in the tariff this year. He went further by declaring himself squarely against the demands of the Manufacturers' Association, and of the protectionist party generally, as being unreasonable and such as the country could not afford to accede to.

THE BRITISH PREFERENCE.
He discussed the question of British preference at considerable length and expressed disappointment at the fact that when Britain was imposing a duty on food stuffs she did not give Canada a preference. The radical change of the traditional policy of Britain in imposing such a duty had changed the conditions under which the Canadian preference had been accorded, and placed the Canadian Government in a position which in the future might render a reconsideration of the present terms of the preference desirable. He pointed out, however, that the question of the trade relations between Britain and her several colonies were still under consideration, and therefore the last word had not been said. In any case, the interests of the masses of the people of Canada would be fully considered, ever should a readjustment be thought desirable at any future time.

While the attitude of the minister on this subject was attempted to be taken by the opposition as indicating a backdown of the Government from its present preference, it would be fairer to presume that in this particular part of his speech, the Minister was addressing the British Government, rather than the Canadian people. His statement of the position was absolutely frank and cannot fail to have some effect in the direction desired; that is, towards securing a preference on Canadian breadstuffs, imported by Britain.

RETALIATION ON GERMANY.
The most striking feature of the limited number of tariff propositions presented by the Minister, was that of retaliation against Germany, by the imposition of an overtax of one-third on the goods coming from that country. When Canada gave the British preference Germany had retaliated by imposing such a tax on Canadian goods. After five years of persuasive methods on the part of Canada, without avail, it was felt that the time had arrived for taking other measures. At present, Canada exports one million to Germany and imports ten million dollars worth from Germany.

The announcement was received with applause from both sides of the house; but on closer inspection the policy of retaliation may not be found to be quite so satisfactory in practice as it seems in theory. Canada's imports from Germany are chiefly beet sugar, imported because it is the cheapest sugar that Canada can get, being the result of a bounty-fed industry in that country. Retaliation against Germany means dearer sugar to Canadian consumers and this means an increase in their proportion of the burden of cost upon the people of small and moderate means. It is a question if it would not be better for Canada to swallow her pride for the sake of cheap sugar, than to assert herself so energetically at her own expense and particularly at the expense of those classes of her people who can least afford it. On the other hand the retaliation against Germany will naturally throw our trade towards the West Indies, and may thereby produce a compensating advantage, because it is certain if we buy sugar from the West Indies, we can pay for the sugar in Canadian products and thereby increase our trade; while according to the trade returns nine-tenths of the sugar bought in Germany had to be paid for in cash.

PROSPECTIVE DUTY ON STEEL RAILS.
The announcement that power is to be taken to impose a duty of 7 per cent upon steel rails is a protective measure that neither appeals to the government's low tariff supporters or records with its hitherto avowed policy, neither does it appear to be in the general interest of the country at large. The railways of Canada are largely built by bonuses given by the people of Canada, and the duty which increases the cost of railway building by the amount of 7 per cent on the rails used, takes up the bonus given to that extent. That the great necessity of Canada is extension and improvement of its transportation, that is, of for our goods until they can talk to you for themselves, which will be just as soon as you call and examine them.

But they will talk for themselves even more emphatically after you have begun to wear them; it is then that their self-praise will be most forcible.

HATS New Spring Hats for Men.

Most men are more particular about their hats than about any other article of their wearing apparel, and it is well they should be for oftentimes a man's character is judged by the appearance of the hat he wears.

McDougall & Secord
Perhaps

You are easily pleased. If Pretty nearly anything will suit you --well, we can do as well for you as anybody.

BUT IF

You are rather particular and want the latest, most stylish, daintiest and prettiest productions there are for spring and summer wear in blouses, skirts, suits, coats, neck wear, gloves, muslins, dimitties, wash silks, THAT IS WHERE WE COME IN,

200 LOTS

50 X 150

ON

Kenneth Macdonald Flats

The Finest Alluvial Soil on Earth.

On each Lot enough may be grown to support a family.

The property adjoins Little's brick yard on the South, the Experimental Farm on the North, and overlooks the Saskatchewan on the East.

The opposite bank of the river, rising in natural terraces from the water's edge to an average height of 150 feet, beautifully wooded, affords A PANORAMA OF HARMONY AND DELIGHT.

Edmonton has passed the experimental stage, and will possess in a few years a metropolitan population.

The Railway Question is settled. The Canadian Pacific, Grand Trunk and Canadian Northern are assured quantities.

A fact not generally known substantiates that Edmonton will be a terminus for some years, is that the carrying capacity of the Canadian Pacific exceeds the Oriental and British Columbian trades combined, and the three great roads mentioned will halt before pushing on to the Pacific, thereby making our city of vastly more importance than it would otherwise have been.

Much of the timber is primeval. The principal streets will be boulevarded, and ancient growth furnish overshade.

Maps and schedules of prices open for inspection at W. H. Hooper Company's Office on May 4, 1903.

its railways; and that these great requirements should be saddled with a disability of $7 per ton, for the sake of one or two manufacturing enterprises, or even business centers, is no sound business proposition. Of course, the duty is not effective yet, nor indeed, is it likely to be for many years, as it only comes into force when the Canadian steel railway mills become able to supply the Canadian demand for rails. This, in all probability, means that the duty will never be imposed. If it means that, it means nothing, and should not have a place on the statute books. While it is desirable to let all classes of manufacturers understand that they are to have such fair measure of protection as a revenue tariff will afford, there are exceptional cases in which the general interest of the country as a consumer requires free imports; and, situated as Canada is, the steel rail industry is one of these.

AS TO BINDER TWINE.

The campaign which has been carried on energetically for the past year with a view to persuading the farmers, that the imposition of a duty on binder twine is their only salvation from famine prices or famine in twine itself is to be met effectively. At present, binder twine is free of duty, and the material used in its manufacture is also free. The strong plea made by the binder twine people was that Manila fibre, which comes entirely from the Philippine Islands, is charged an export duty, which is remitted to the American manufacturers, but must be paid by the Canadians. This was a very slim reason for the imposition of a general duty on the importation of binder twine, because the proportion of Manila fibre in the total amount of twine made in Canada is probably not more than one in ten. Yet being a disadvantage the government proposes to remove it by meeting the export duty on Manila fibre, probably by a compensating bounty on the amount of that fibre actually used in Canada, thus putting the Canadian manufacturers of binder twine on exactly the same footing as the manufacturers of the United States.

AS TO THE LEAD INDUSTRY.

The demands of the lead industry of British Columbia were mentioned. The matter had been taken up and the conclusion had been reached that an increase of lead duties would hamper other industries too seriously. The prospect was held out, however, that some assistance would be given, probably by a bounty supplementary to that now given.

EXEMPTIONS FROM DUTY EXTENDED.

The exemption from duty on machinery ery for the construction and equipment of beet sugar factories is extended until June 30th of next year. Machinery for use in alluvial gold mining is free for the same period.

THE GENERAL TARIFF POLICY.

Taken altogether, the budget announcements are very satisfactory, and although in the particulars of retaliation against Germany and the proposition of imposing a duty on steel rails, they are a disappointment to the friends of low tariff. They have reason to congratulate themselves on the difference in the declared trade policy of the government, as compared with the prospects a year ago, when strong protectionist speeches were made from the government side of the House, and when the then Minister of Public Works was campaigning the country on behalf of a prohibitory tariff. Then the protectionists seemed to have it all their own way, and there seemed to be a danger of the government being stampeded into a policy of protection. That danger is now past. The sharp turn down which the Manufacturers' Association has received draws the line clearly between the policy of the government and that of the party of high protection of which the present opposition constitutes the greater and more important part. What the next move of the Manufacturers' Association will be can only be conjectured, but if they mean fight, their challenge has been definitely accepted.

WILL OFFER ON

MONDAY, MAY 4th, 1903,

200 = LOTS = 200

A portion of the ROWLAND ESTATE, otherwise known as "THE SYNDICATE."

Plans and Prices can be seen at the Office on and after the date mentioned.

This is the closest and best property available, and the choicest in and about Edmonton. The furthest part is from 10 to 15 minutes from the post office. The property is eminently the people's portion: is not controlled by a policy of inertia dictated by "Hebraic Hatred." The surveys conform to existing ones, and the streets will be projected to their legitimate confines. Building Sites on the verge of the hill overlooking the mighty Saskatchewan, the foliage and verdure of whose banks is not exceeded by the fiercest tropics or softest Pacific scenes, abound. Prices will be uniform and moderate, tempered as a corrective of the present indefinite craze.

TERMS.—One third Cash. Balance 6 and 12 months, interest 8 per cent. Agreements $2 each, transfers free.

BATHS FOR CALGARY

Winnipeg Telegram—What will be known as the Public School Swimming Association, Limited, has been formed at Calgary. The capitalization of the company will be $5,000 divided into five thousand shares. The following provisional directors have been appointed: Messrs. Young, Hutchings, Gronlund and Snell, James Mackenzie for school and Misses Faute and Baker representing the school teachers. A site has been selected and two lots purchased on Northcote avenue, opposite the public school. The whole equipment, including boilers, building, private and public dressing rooms, etc., will cost about $2,400. The building will be about 30 by 70 and the swimming tank, 29 by 63. It will be seven feet deep at one end and three feet at the other. Prices to the public will be announced in due course. An effort will be made to complete the project by May 15.

EDMONTON INDUSTRIAL

Byeopener—On June 30th, July 1st and 2nd, Edmonton has her annual exhibition. It bids fair to be a corker, with $10,000 hard cash in prizes, $4,000 of which goes to the race horses. The clerk of the course, Mr. Barney Cooper, has sent letters of cordial invitation to all the horse men of the west to come up and compete, laying stress on the necessity of square dealing on both sides. Nor is this clerk of the course above asking for suggestions from the horse men themselves as to suitable races and suitable distribution of the purses. In plain words the clerk of the course is not above his job and is going to leave no stone unturned to give the public a crackerjack of a three days race meeting. As for the exhibition end of it, the $6,000 prize money will attract exhibitors from far and near, and the exhibits will be the best the country can produce.

Calgary fair comes on a week later when everybody will be broke. We fear Edmonton is outgunning Calgary as she did in the notorious hockey match a short time back.
